Committee and chair reports

NIO

- W. McCoy- Crime is down, and continues to go down. However, no time for complacency. Be vigilant and report any suspicious activities.

Community

Cradock Neighborhood Watch- Ted Lamb, keep doors locked to prevent larcenies. Most happening after midnight. Lawn signs seem to be effective, so please keep them in yards.

SPSA CAC- Dolores Knight, meetings held second Thursday at 7pm at SPSA plant in office, once a trimester.

Old Business

-Post office – A second letter will be drafted with more specifics(i.e.: cost analysis, acknowledgement of annexation paperwork).

New Business

-Flooding- Letter to be drafted to City Council to request their assistance in dealing with flooding concerns at various locations throughout Cradock.

-Special Event Insurance- $292 per event, to be discussed at February meeting

-SpringFest- We are in dire need for a Committee Chair and Volunteers. Please consider.

Meeting adjourned at 8:28 pm.
